STORIES ABOUT THE CASE

Bills Claims His Toledo Partner Involved Him, But There Are Rumors of Speculations in Wheat,

TECUMESS. Nov. 28 .- The firm of O. Bills & Co., proprietors of one of the two banking institutions at this place, had its doors closed this morning. Mr. Bills, the senior partner, is also interested in a Toledo house and has large investments in shipping. Nothing definite can be learned at this hour as to why the bank failed to resume business as usual this morning. There is a rumor that some startling developments in connection with a Toledo man with whom Mr. Bills is associated has caused a temporary suspension, pending an in-vestigation into the banks affairs.

Mr. Bills, with other gentlemen; is locked in the bank building and refuses all requests for an interview. He has just answered a telephone call, and, in response to a question as to whether the bank had burst, said he thought it was all right. He then hung up his tel-ephone, refusing to reply to further in-quiries.

Bills & Koch Assign to E. W. Loud, o Detroit.

Toleno, Nov. 28 .- The lumber firm of Bills & Koch has assigned its busipess to E. W. Loud, of Detroit, on a claim of $64,000 cash procured on accommodation paper. Other creditors have since filed claims swelling the total liabilities to $150,000. Assets thus far are estimated at $88,000.

The company recently reorganized or rather consolidated, with a capital k of $100,000, under the name of the Toledo Navigation company. The company purchased the schooner Ketcham, and on her John Craig, the ship builder held a mortgage of $45,000. He has also a claim of about $7,000. which is unsecured. The First National bank of this city, today filed outs against Bills & Koch on a claim of $12,300, for winen an attachment was issued. Mr. Loud, the assignee, has reduced his claim to $11,000 since coming into po-session of the property. The Kereham National bank also has a claim of $8,000.

Mr. Bills, the senior member, is also interested in a bank and lumber business with his brother-in-law, L. B. Church, at Alma and Ithaca, Mich., which is transacted under the firm name of Church, Bills & Co. It is tated that Mr. Bills has been unfortunate in wheat speculation. He has drawn from the business of Bills & en within the last thirty days over $25,000 in cash. Some time ago this firm bought the planing mill plant from Whitney & Tracy, but recently sold it to Merrill, Bing & Co., for

VERY UGLY STAB.

Michael Sullivan's Lung Punctured in a Saloon Tussle.

DETROIT, Nov. 28 .- About 9:15 this morning two men rushed into the city physician's office. They were wildly excited and asked for a doctor to come to Lynch Bros.' saloon, 50 Clinton street, just across the way from the municipal building. Dr. Kenning sccompanied them and found a large man lying unconscious on the floor of a rear room. He was bleeding cupiously from a stab wound over the heart, and another man was bending anxiously over the prostrate form. The influence of stimulants, and a hurried examination showed a wound an inch wide directly over the heart. The doc-tor thought the stab had penetrated lung and, as he feared fatal results, ordered Boyd's ambulance. The man, however, who proved to be Michael Sullivan—arrested last Saturday on suspicion, and later released—refused to go to the hospital, and was made as comfortable as possible on a couple of tables.

CUSTER'S FATHER DEAD.

His Diness Was Short, But the Life Sorrow Was Long.

Monnon, Nov. 28 .- Emanuel Custer, aged 35, father of the late General George Custer, the famous cavalry leader, died yesterday at the residence of his son, Neven J. Custer, in Parsonville, about three miles west of this place. The loss of three sons, a grandon and a son-in-law on some bloody day on the Little Big Horn is the measure of the old man's sacrifices for the republic. The children left to him were a son, at whose house he died, Mrs. Colhourn, the state librarian, and Mrs. David Reid of Montoe. General George, Captain Tom and Boston Custer, a civilian, were the sons killed in the disastrous fight with the Indians. Harry Armstrong Reid, a grandson, who also accompanied the expedition as a civilian, and Lieutenant James Calhourn, husband of one of his daughters, also perished.

Typhoid Fever Rages.

Sr. Louis, Nov. 28.-The asylum for the blind is becoming a veritable hot-house for typhoid fever patients. Over twenty of the students are down with typhoid fever and the malady is apreading. A pathetic feature is the fact that must of the students are from sbroad and generally belong to families in poor circumstances, who are not able to respond if summoned to the bedside of the sick. Every hospital in the city contains typhoid patients' one

The latter pulled out a kmfe, or some other sharp instrument, and slashed Polbitzki across the right hand, nearly severing two of his fingers. Ponke was arrested.

Rocky Road to Glory.

Henson, Nov. 28.—The Congrega-tional church in Hudson looks as plain as a muley cow. The June tornado swept the steeple from the building, and later a gentle zephyr knocked an ornamental chimney from the front of the edifice. Sust a night or two ago a breeze fanned the sacred house again and stripped it of eaves-troughs. The nterior is all right, however, and Elder Bradley keeps thumping saint and sinner from the pulpit, and pointing the path that leads to glory.

Hugged and Kissed. Jaceson, Nov. 28.—Emma M. List has begun suit for $5,000 damages against James H. Glasgow. Miss List is about 22 and a domestic, while Mr. Glasgow is 75 and reputed to be worth considerable property and an active member of one of the largest church societies in the city. He is respected by all who know him and all deplore the fix in which he is now piaced by the suit in question. The cor, lainant states that he hugged and kessed her against her wish and desire.
